A COUNTRY MUSIC EXPERIENCE

- Need a headliner feel without the price tag? ✓ One killer vocalist + pro band.
- Want something massive? ✓ Stack the deck with 2-3 singers and create a show-stopping experience.
- Working within a budget? ✓ Acoustic duo or trio option with the same high-level brand polish.

Big Time Grain Company isn't just a band — it's a customizable entertainment experience. Whether a client needs an intimate acoustic vibe, a high-energy full band, or a festival-worthy show with multiple headlining-caliber singers, we tailor the performance to fit the event, the audience, and the vision.

ONE BAND MULTIPLE VOICES ZERO HASSLE

Many events struggle with clunky transitions, bloated production needs, and disjointed performances when trying to feature multiple artists. Coordinating different bands, managing stage changes, and keeping the energy consistent can quickly turn into a logistical headache—leading to delays, audience drop-off, and a final product that feels more patchwork than powerful.

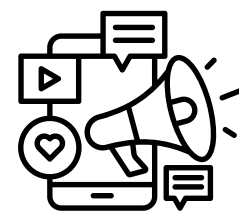

With a roster of dynamic lead vocalists — each with their own following and style — clients can choose a single frontman or bring the full lineup together for a powerhouse, multi-voice show that feels like a country-rock showcase. This kind of flexibility is rare in the country music world and allows us to serve everything from corporate events to main-stage festivals with the same high-level professionalism and impact.

We're not locked into one voice or one formula. We're built to adapt — and deliver a world-class experience every time.

SCALABLE TO FIT YOUR EVENT

Featuring a roster of five exceptional vocalists—Dylan Gerard, Brock Wagoner, Katie Heizer, Rusty Laffoon, and David Williamson—we offer flexibility to match your event's goals and budget.

Whether you're looking for the full, high-energy show with all five artists or a more streamlined performance featuring select vocalists, we provide scalable options without compromising on quality. Our team works closely with you to create a seamless, professional production that elevates your event and leaves a lasting impression.

THE EXPERIENCE

Big Time Grain Company isn't just a band—it's the soundtrack to an unforgettable night of music and memories. At its heart, Big Time Grain Company's rhythm section brings together the best of the country with an attitude of rock 'n' roll—blazing guitar riffs, groovy basslines, and rock-solid drumming—delivered by true professionals who know how to keep a crowd on their feet. This isn't just another band—it's a collective of seasoned artists with a passion for performance that you can feel in every note.

With five distinct voices on one stage, Big Time Grain Co delivers a setlist that spans the full spectrum of country music. From 90s throwbacks and boot-stompin' anthems to modern radio hits and soulful Americana, each singer brings their own flavor—keeping the show fresh, dynamic, and unpredictable in the best way. Whether your crowd loves high-energy party tracks, heartfelt ballads, or gritty rock-tinged country, there's something for everyone—and no two songs sound the same.

We love Big Time Grain Company and have booked them for many events on the Plaza. They are a huge draw and a hit with crowds of all ages and backgrounds including sponsors, families, professionals, shoppers, artist and community groups. Their sound is amazing and their energy is infectious! Our TV partner for this past Plaza Art Fair raved about their amazing quality and sound as a country band.

Park Place Shopping Center in Leawood, Kansas, we booked Big Time Grain Co. Band for a concert in Barkley Square during our summer concert series. The band was a huge hit for audience members of all ages. They played mostly country cover music and really got the audience moving. They were energetic, sounded incredible and were very engaged with the audience. I heard many people commenting on how close they sounded to the real thing! Their professionalism in setting up the event and during the event was sincerely appreciated, as was their additional marketing efforts they did on their own to help support the event. I highly recommend Big Time Grain Co. Band for private parties or large events!

DYLAN GERARD

Big Time Grain Company teams up with Dylan Gerard. Originally from the small town of Macclenny, Florida, Dylan Gerard pays tribute to classic retro sounds while keeping his finger on the pulse of modern country music. He brings a great soulful voice, influenced by Otis Redding and Bonnie Raitt, to a rugged country-rock feel influenced by Willie Nelson and Johnny Cash as well as rock bands like The Eagles and Lynyrd Skynyrd. Kelly Clarkson commented on Dylan's distinctive voice when she was a guest coach on NBC's The Voice. Kelly told Dylan that the great tone in his voice would be a unique yet fitting trait in country music.

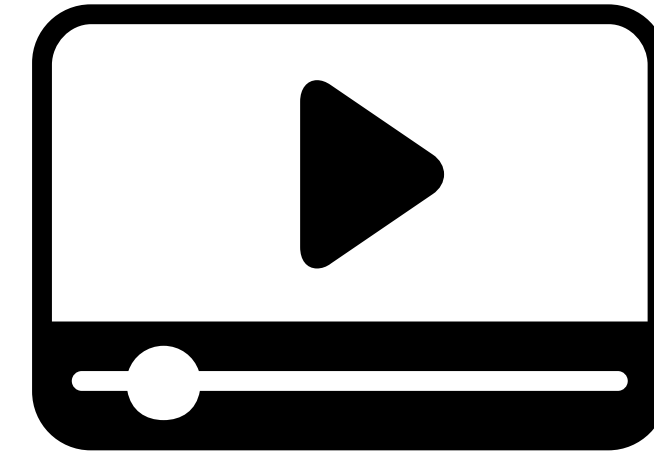

Dylan is thankful for the many relationships he built while on Season 13 of NBC's The Voice, as well as the advice he received from both Kelly Clarkson and his coach, Adam Levine. He will always remember his blind audition on the show when his nerves were instantly calmed after two coaches turned their chairs. In addition to his time on The Voice, Dylan has many other memories that influenced and motivated his music career. One meaningful memory that Dylan has is singing to his sister while she was in a coma. He was moved by the healing power that music had in his sister's medical recovery, and this incident propelled him to pursue his career in music.

DAVID WILLIAMSON

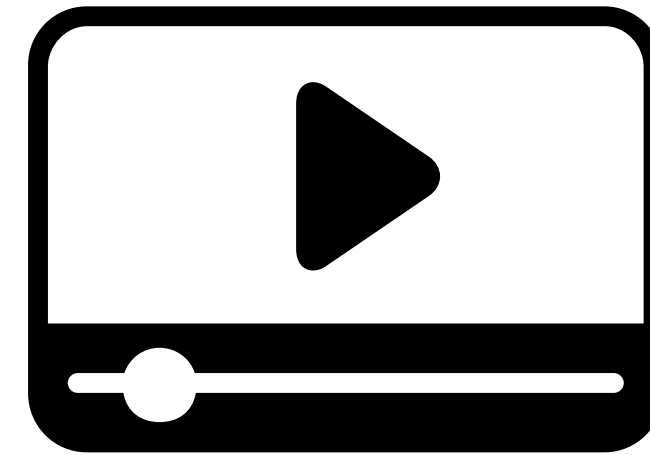

David Williamson brings depth, soul, and seasoned musicianship to every performance. Born in northern Virginia and raised in the Shenandoah Valley, David's musical journey started early—playing piano at age eight, then picking up guitar, drums, and bass as the years went on. His versatility and ear for melody have made him a sought-after performer, blending country roots with emotional authenticity. Influenced by artists like Cody Johnson, Luke Combs, and George Strait, David channels that same raw honesty and timeless sound. As General Manager of Guitars and Cadillacs, he's a respected leader in the Kansas City music scene and brings that professionalism and passion to every show.

David's story runs deeper than music. Raised by a single mother who poured everything into her kids, he grew up with strong values, a love for people, and a will to push through hard times. After a life-altering back injury in 2014, he spent a full year in rehab just to walk normally again—a journey that built the grit behind his voice. He's worked cattle, driven trains, and pursued firefighting and EMT work, always chasing purpose through service. Anchored by the influence of his late grandfather—his best friend—and his mom's unwavering strength, David brings more than just talent to the stage. He brings a story people feel.

CORY JACKSON

Cory Jackson, is an independent country artist blending today's modern edge with the timeless warmth of the genre's golden era. Raised in Jonesboro, Arkansas, his small-town roots and faith continue to shape both his sound and his connection with audiences. He picked up guitar at 16, inspired by his grandfather, and quickly discovered a natural pull toward songwriting and storytelling.

Since releasing his first EP in 2015, Cory has built a loyal following through thousands of performances and a catalog of singles across all streaming platforms. His shows mix classics from George Strait, Alan Jackson, and Glen Campbell with his own originals—songs grounded in family, values, and genuine country soul.

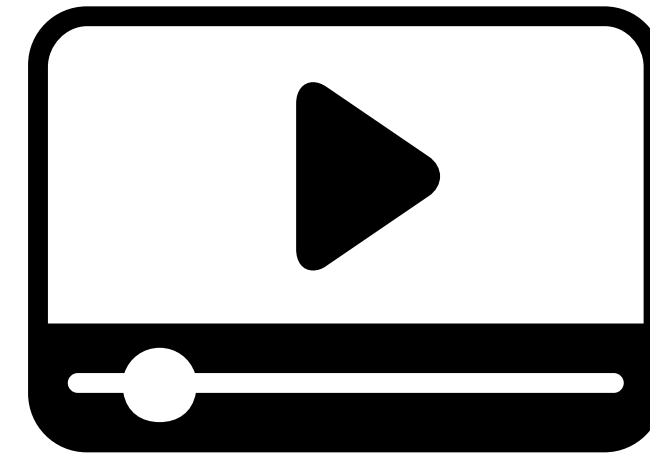

Career highlights include opening for The Oak Ridge Boys, Tracy Lawrence, Parmalee, and Rosanne Cash; back-to-back independent artist wins with Nashville's WSM-650AM; a Top 5 national placement in Snag-a-Job's competition; multiple Arkansas CMA awards—including 2018 "Country Artist of the Year," 2022 "Video of the Year," 2023 Song of the Year finalist, and 2024 "Male Vocalist of the Year"; and a national debut on NBC's The Voice, landing on Team Blake Shelton.

NICKI WHITE

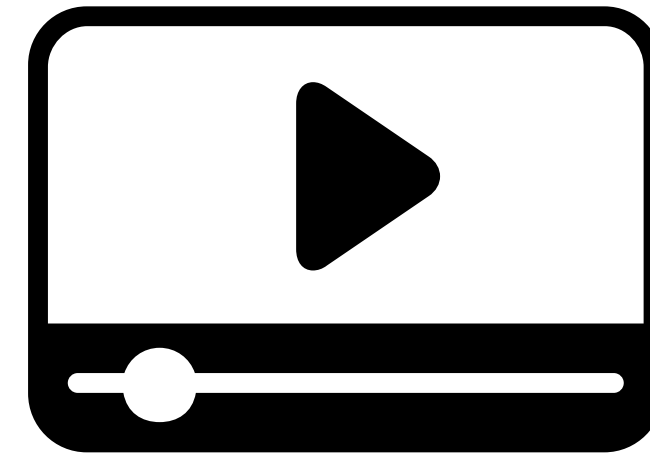

Nicki White is a Kansas City-based singer, songwriter, and guitarist whose path into music began early—stepping onto stages at just 15 and steadily building a reputation for her raw honesty and emotional depth. Over the years, she has developed a sound that moves fluidly between blues, soul, pop, and country, creating a style that feels both grounded and expansive. Her work reflects a willingness to evolve, shaped by personal growth, creative risks, and a deep connection to storytelling through song.

Known for a soulful, blues-infused voice that carries both grit and vulnerability, Nicki brings a distinctive edge to every performance. Recently, she has partnered with Big Time Grain Company, blending her expressive delivery into the country space and adding a fresh dynamic to their live shows. The collaboration highlights her ability to bridge genres while staying true to her roots—offering audiences something that feels familiar, yet unmistakably her own.

BROCK WAGONER

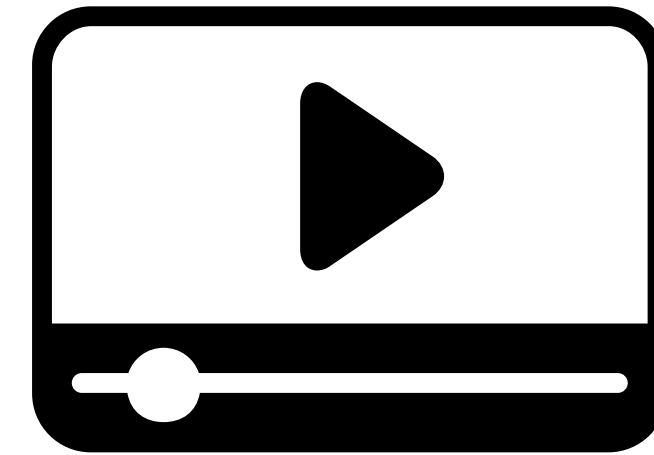

Big Time Grain Company is proud to team up with Nashville recording artist Brock Wagoner, a dynamic talent hailing from Colby, KS. A seasoned performer, Brock gained national recognition as the runner-up among the finalists in Season 35 of the Country Showdown, showcasing his standout voice and captivating stage presence. His latest release, the Nashville EP My Roots, features the compelling single "Thomas County Line," an ode to his Kansas heritage that has resonated with fans far and wide.

Throughout his career, Brock has had the honor of sharing the stage with some of the biggest names in country music, including Little Texas, Luke Bryan, Rhett Akins, Alan Jackson, Garth Brooks, Vince Gill, Rascal Flatts, and Mark Chesnutt. These experiences have shaped his artistry and honed his ability to command the stage with confidence and charm.

Brock's powerful vocals and infectious energy make every performance unforgettable, inspiring and connecting with audiences of all ages. Adding to his captivating stage presence, Brock's skill on the keyboard and honky-tonk piano brings an extra layer of fun and authenticity to each show, setting him apart as a versatile and engaging artist.

RUSTY LAFFOON

Rusty Laffoon's powerful and versatile voice effortlessly crosses genres, blending Country, Rock, Blues, Motown, and Pop into a sound that's both timeless and uniquely his own. Whether he's delivering a Merle Haggard classic or a crowd-shaking rock anthem, Rusty brings an unmistakable energy and authenticity to the stage. Based in Kansas City, he's been a staple of the Midwest music scene since the early 2000s, captivating audiences with his commanding presence and soulful delivery.

Influenced by artists like Chris Stapleton and Sturgill Simpson, Rusty's sound carries the grit of Southern soul and the heart of Americana storytelling. Over the years, he's shared stages with major acts including Travis Tritt, Sawyer Brown, Los Lobos, Jo Dee Messina, Dylan Scott, and Drake White—further cementing his reputation as a must-hear performer. Whether fronting a full band or delivering a stripped-down acoustic set, Rusty knows how to read a room and leave a lasting impression.
